

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Fifty Years of Class Actions – A Global Perspective

JANUARY
4-5, 2017

The sessions will take place at The Buchmann Faculty of Law, Trubowicz Building,
Sonia and Eduard Kossoy Conference Room (Room 307).

Wednesday, January 4, 2017

11:00 | Gathering

11:15 | Greetings

Ron Harris, Dean, Tel Aviv University Faculty of Law

11:30-12:30

Brian Fitzpatrick, Vanderbilt University Law School

Should Third-Party Litigation Funding Be Permitted in Class Actions?

Comment: Ronen Avraham, Tel-Aviv University Faculty of Law

12:30-13:30

Vicki Wayne, University of South Australia School of Law

When Pragmatism Leads to Unintended Consequences: A Critique of Australia's Unique Closed Class Regime

Comment: Rabeea Assy, Haifa University Faculty of Law

13:30-15:00 LUNCH

15:00-16:00

Agustin Barroilhet, University of Chile

The Local Regime Politics' Foundations of Class Action Regulation

Comment: Barak Atiram, Sapir and Ono Academic Colleges

16:00-16:15 COFFEE BREAK

16:15-17:15

Alon Klement, Tel-Aviv University Faculty of Law

Robert Klonoff, Lewis & Clark Law School

Class Actions in the US and Israel: A Comparative Approach

Comment: Judge Ruth Ronen, Corporate Department, Tel-Aviv District Court

17:15-18:15

Shay Lavie, Tel-Aviv University Faculty of Law

Tiered Certification

Comment: Issachar Rosen-Zvi, Tel-Aviv University Faculty of Law

19:00-21:00 Keynote lecture

Malka Brender Hall of Justice (Ground Floor)

Prof. Arthur R. Miller, NYU School of Law

The American Class Action: From Birth to Maturity

Response: Prof. Samuel Issacharoff, NYU School of Law

The Emerging New Class Action Model in the United States

Thursday, January 5, 2017

9:00-10:00

Ianika Tzankova, Tilburg Law School

Standing and Representation in Collective Redress: A Modern Tale about the Emperor's New Clothes?

Comment: Ido Baum, The college of Management, School of Law

10:00-11:00

Robin Hui HUANG, Chinese University of Hong Kong

Securities Class Action in China: Past, Present and Future

Comment: Amir Licht, School of Law, IDC Herzliya

11:00-11:30 COFFEE BREAK

11:30-12:30

Elizabeth Chamblee Burch, University of Georgia

Publicly Funded Objectors

Comment: Eran B. Taussig, The college of Management, School of Law and Haifa University Faculty of Law

12:30-13:30

Brigitte Haar, Goethe-Universität

'Regulation Through Litigation' 2.0 – Individual Rights and Regulatory Objectives as Determinants of Collective Redress for Investors

Comment: Roy Shapira, School of Law, IDC Herzliya

13:30-15:00 LUNCH

15:00-16:00

Zachary Clopton, Cornell Law School

The Global Class Action and its Alternatives

Comment: Celia Wasserstein Fassberg, the Hebrew University Faculty of Law

16:00-17:00

Catherine Piché, Université de Montréal

Developing a Framework to determine whether a Class Action is Economically Valuable

Comment: Alon Klement, Tel Aviv University Faculty of Law

17:00-17:15 COFFEE BREAK

17:15-18:15

Fabrizio Cafaggi, European University Institute

European Judicial Dialogue and Collective Redress: The Institutional Dimension of Fundamental Rights

Comment: Lior Zemer, School of Law, IDC Herzliya