In the Archival Activism symposium we will engage with three sites in which a profound change has been taking place in the last two decades: the archive, testimony and cultural restitution. We will focus on civil society and the way it uses new technologies and globalization processes to redefine the meaning of political activism in this day and age.

*Symposium discussions will be held in Hebrew and English.

09:30 | 20.6.18
The Sonia and Edward Kossoy Conference Room (307), Trubowitz Building, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

In the Archival Activism symposium we will engage with three sites in which a profound change has been taking place in the last two decades: the archive, testimony and cultural restitution. We will focus on civil society and the way it uses new technologies and globalization processes to redefine the meaning of political activism in this day and age.

*Symposium discussions will be held in Hebrew and English.

09:30 – Reception
9:45 – Greetings
Leora Bilsky, Director of the Minerva Center for Human Rights, TAU

10:00 – First Panel: The Archive
Chair and speaker: Gadi Algazi, Tel Aviv University
Speakers:
Liat Kozma, Hebrew University Jerusalem
Amit Pinchevski, Hebrew University Jerusalem
Elizabeth Anthony, United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

11:15-11:30 – Short break
Roy Yellin, B’Tselem
Naama Katiele, Amram Association

12:45 – Lunch break

14:00
Stephen Naron, Director, Fortunoff Video Archive, Yale University:
“The Fortunoff Video Archive for Holocaust Testimonies: Exploring the Archive as a Digital Resource”

14:30 – Second Panel: Testimonies
Chair: Michal Givoni, Ben-Gurion University
Speakers:
Renana Keydar, Hebrew University Jerusalem
Yifat Gutman, Ben-Gurion University
Ron Zaidel, Breaking the Silence NGO

15:45-16:00 – Short break

16:00 – Third Panel: Cultural Restitution
Chair: Doreen Lustig, Tel Aviv University
Speakers:
Ana Filipa Vrdoljak, University of Technology Sidney
Gish Amit, Principal, “Shibolim” Elementary School, Ness Ziona
Bilhah Shilo, Hebrew University Jerusalem
Anna Holzer-Kawalko, Hebrew University Jerusalem
Said Abu Shaqra, Umm El Fahem Art Gallery

18:00
The 10th Annual Lecture on Human Rights
Prof. Ana Filipa Vrdoljak, University of Technology Sidney
Self-determination and Genocide

In the Archival Activism symposium we will engage with three sites in which a profound change has been taking place in the last two decades: the archive, testimony and cultural restitution. We will focus on civil society and the way it uses new technologies and globalization processes to redefine the meaning of political activism in this day and age.

*Symposium discussions will be held in Hebrew and English.