The Speaker

Alex Stein (LL.B., LL.M., Jerusalem; Ph.D., London) is a Professor of Law at Cardozo Law School. Before joining Cardozo in 2004, he served for more than a decade at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem Faculty of Law. He held visiting professorships at Columbia, Miami, Toronto and Yale. He specializes in Evidence, Legal Process, Torts, Medical Malpractice, and Economic Analysis of Law generally. He authors Foundations of Evidence Law (Oxford University Press, 2005)—a widely debated theoretical account of evidentiary rules as allocating the risk of error rather than ascertaining the truth; Tort Liability under Uncertainty (Oxford University Press, 2001) (with Ariel Porat) and many articles that appeared in leading journals. Professor Stein is on the editorial board of the International Journal of Evidence & Proof and is one of the founding editors of Theoretical Inquiries in Law. He maintains website at www.professoralexstein.com.
