

Taubenschlag Institute of Criminal Law
The Buchmann Faculty of Law
Tel Aviv University

Anny and Paul Yanowicz Chair of Human Rights

Prof. Carol Steiker

Henry J. Friendly Professor of Law, Harvard Law School

In conversation with:

Prof. Yoav Sapir

Academic Director, Taubenschlag Institute of Criminal Law,
The Buchman Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

Prof. Talia Fisher

Anny and Paul Yanowicz Professor of Human Rights
The Buchman Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv University

What Israel Might Learn from the US Experience with the Death Penalty

Monday, May 15, 2023, 16:30

Reception: 16:00

Elga Cegla Hall, The Buchman Faculty of Law, Trubowicz Building

Carol Steiker is the Henry J. Friendly Professor of Law at Harvard Law School, where she serves as the Dean's Special Advisor for Public Service. She also served as Faculty Co-Director of the Harvard Criminal Justice Policy Program from 2015-2020. Professor Steiker specializes in the broad field of criminal justice, where her work ranges from substantive criminal law to criminal procedure to institutional design, with a special focus on capital punishment. Her most recent books are Comparative Capital Punishment, co-edited with her brother Jordan Steiker (Edward Elgar 2019) and Courting Death: The Supreme Court and Capital Punishment, co-authored with Jordan Steiker (The Belknap Press of Harvard University Press 2016).

Entrance through gate 4. Event code: 1229533
Participation is free, but you must register in advance here >>

15 • 05 • 23

Invitation