

CURRICULUM VITAE

Nitzana Ben-David

The Bachmann Faculty of Law

Tel Aviv University

Tel Aviv 69978, Israel

Mail: Nitzanabd@gmail.com

Current position:

Juvenile Judge, Juvenile court, Israel (2000- present)

External lecturer, Law and Therapy in Juvenile Court, Tel Aviv University, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv Israel (2014- present)

Education:

B.A, Sociology (C.L), Hebrew University Faculty of Social Science, Jerusalem, Israel. (1986)

LL. B, Law, Bar- Elan University Faculty of Law, Ramat-Gan, Israel (1990)

LL.M, Law, Haifa University, Faculty of Law, Haifa, Israel (2008)

Research student The Cohn Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science and Ideas, Tel Aviv University, Faculty of Humanities, Tel Aviv Israel (2013-17)

JSD candidate and research student, Law, Tel Aviv University, Faculty of Law, Tel Aviv Israel (2017 – Present)

Master's thesis:

The Appointment of Social Worker, David Reifen, as Juvenile Judge – "Vision" or Lack of Rigor"?

Supervisors: Prof. Jose Brunner, Prof. Orit Rozin, Tel Aviv University

Professional Experience:

Legal Adviser, Defense for Children International (DCI), Israel, 1996-8

Director of Juvenile Department, Public Defender Office Tel Aviv District,
Ministry of Justice, 1998-2000

Conferences and Workshops:

Annual Conference The Israeli Association of Law and Society Tel – Aviv, Israel, 2013

Annual Conference of the Association of History and Law, Jerusalem, Israel 2014

Pre- Conference Workshop, Frankfurt am Main, Frankfurt, Germany,2017

Annual Conference of the Association of History and Law, Jerusalem, Israel, 2017