Index for volume 32 | זכר обор
כרך חדש של \ןויו

Yonatan Y. Brafman ‘The Objectifying Instrument of Religious Consciousness’: Halakhic Norms as Expression and Discipline in Soloveitchik’s Thought

Ephraim Kanarfogel Restoring Spanish Torah Study to Its Former Glory: On the Goals and Intended Audiences of Sefer ha-Hinnukh and Its Exposition of Ta’amei ha-Mitsvot

Lawrence H. Schiffman Second Temple Period Rationales for the Torah’s Commandments

David Shatz Between the Ritual and the Ethical: Mastery Over the Body in Modern Theories of Ta’amei ha-Mitsvot

Levi Cooper Esotericism, Accessibility, and Mainstreamization: Pre-Prayer Waving and the Evolution of Jewish Practice

Ephraim Kanarfogel The Adjudication of Fines in Ashkenaz during the Medieval and Early Modern Periods and the Preservation of Communal Decorum

George Y. Kohler Against the Heteronomy of Halakha: Hermann Cohen’s Implicit Rejection of Kant’s Critique of Judaism

Martin Lockshin Does Halakha Really Uproot Peshat?

Assaf Likhovski Recent Trends in the Study of the Intellectual History of Law and Jewish Law Scholarship

Amihai Radzyner Halakhah, Law, and Worldview: Chief Rabbis Goren and Yosef and the Permission to Marry a Second Wife in Israeli Law

Volume’s price: 50$