How to Apply to Queen’s Faculty of Law

Exchange students must first be nominated by their Exchange Coordinator in their home university. The nominated exchange student will then be contacted directly by Queen’s University regarding next steps to complete the application procedure.

Deadlines

April 1, 2019  Student is nominated by home university (notice of both fall and winter term nominees requested). Partner universities will be notified that the online nomination system is live in early 2019.

April 30, 2019  Exchange student nominated for the fall term or full year completes the application process and submits official transcripts.
September 1, 2019  Student is nominated by home university for winter 2020 exchange (earlier notice is preferred).

September 30, 2019  Exchange students nominated for the winter term completes the application process and submits official transcripts.

Academic and English Language Requirements

The Juris Doctor (JD) professional degree in law is taught at a level comparable to graduate studies. Canadian students are admitted to this program after completion of an undergraduate university degree. Therefore, incoming exchange students should be academically strong, in the upper-years of their legal studies, with a cumulative average of no less than B, (3.0 on a 4.0 grading scale), especially if they will be facing a change from civil law to common law studies and language barriers.

At Queen's, English is the language of instruction and communication, except for the language departments. Proficiency in English is a prerequisite for admission. Applicants whose native languages do not include English may be required to obtain satisfactory standing in an English Language Proficiency Test as part of the application process, and before final acceptance is granted.

The Faculty of Law at Queen's University requires the following minimum scores:

- TOEFL Internet-based Test (TOEFL iBT):
  - Writing Test: 24/30
  - Speaking Test: 22/30
  - Reading Test: 22/30
  - Listening Test: 20/30
  - For an overall minimum score of 88 (out of 120).

- IELTS: 7 (academic module)

- PTE Academic: 65 (minimum score overall)

Queen’s Net ID and Email

Upon receipt of their student ID, students must activate their Queen’s NetID and password. The Queen’s NetID is the student’s user id to sign into Queen’s online applications and services including SOLUS and OnQ.

To activate: http://www.queensu.ca/its/netid/netid-activation
[See offer letter for further information.]

To set up your Queen’s email address
Queen’s email is the primary means of communication at Queen’s Law.

Student e-mail addresses are automatically activated in the following format, NetID@queensu.ca. To access your Queen’s e-mail go to: http://office365.queensu.ca and use your NetID and password to sign in. We also highly recommend students create a first.lastname@queensu.ca alias for their e-mail by logging into http://netid.queensu.ca and going to ‘Manage your e-mail options’.

Visas and Permits

Students planning to study in Canada for one term (less than six months), may study under temporary resident status as a visitor. For any period longer than six months (two terms), a study permit is required. Students from some countries require a temporary resident visa (entry visa) to be eligible to enter Canada. Most people that do not require a visa, require electronic Travel Authorization (eTA) to fly into Canada.

If your research results in further questions, you can also contact an International Student Adviser at: isa@queensu.ca.
University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP)

Enrolment in the University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP) is compulsory for all international students registered at Queen’s University. International students will be automatically enrolled in the University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP) for each term of their enrollment at Queen’s University. The fee for single UHIP coverage will appear on the student fee account prior to the start of each term under the title “International Health Care”. Payment of the UHIP premium in full is required to register. Please see the fees.

For use in Canada, UHIP coverage will begin on August 10 (for September starts) and December 10 (for January starts). Students planning to arrive in Canada before that date are recommended to have adequate emergency medical coverage and travel insurance.

More information: University Health Insurance Plan.

Law exchange students also have the option of purchasing the Society of Graduate and Professional Students (SGPS) student government’s supplementary health and dental plans, if they wish to have additional coverage on items not covered under UHIP. Please visit SGPS Health and Dental Plan for opt-in deadlines and fees.

Special Needs and Disability Accommodations

If you have any special needs arising from a disability, please let us know so that we can make arrangements to put the suitable accommodations in place for the adaptation of course materials, if needed, or for examination accommodations.

Contact Helen Connop, Manager of Education and Equity Services (helen.connop@queensu.ca) to discuss your needs. See also the Campus Accessibility Hub.

Housing

Incoming international exchange students live off-campus in nearby privately owned housing, usually within a 15-minute walk to campus. We recommend students come to Kingston at least one week in advance to find adequate accommodation, as furnished housing is in high demand in the fall. It is also recommended that students do not sign a lease or send rent money to a landlord before arriving in Kingston.

Orientation and Buddy Program

Fall 2019:
The Faculty of Law offers an Orientation week for the incoming first-year class and new upper-year students to Queen’s Law, which runs from September 1-6, 2019. Students can also participate in an Orientation Buddy Program, which pairs them with an upper-year law student for the Orientation period. The faculty hosts additional formal and informal welcome events, including registration, a tour of the law school, welcome reception, academic orientation, etc.
Winter 2020:
The Faculty of Law hosts a series of welcome events in January including a tour of the law school, welcome reception, academic orientation, etc. A blended orientation for Winter 2020 term students will also be offered through the Queen’s University International Centre.

QUIC Orientation:
The Queen’s University International Centre (QUIC) also offers a welcome and orientation program for students.
